Zhoda Investments' organic wine from Dalmatia is now available at Systembolaget

The Testament Babic and Testament Posip wines from Zhoda Investments' winery in Dalmatia are now available for the company's shareholders and the Swedish market through Systembolaget. Over 100 restaurants in Croatia sell these wines made by Dalmatia's leading winemakers and they have now been made available to the Swedish market.

"I am very pleased that our new sales strategy is proving to be successful and that our wines have been getting such high reviews on the local wine scene. The Testament wines are sold in over 100 restaurants in Croatia. We have now arranged for an import of the wines so that our shareholders and other Swedish wine lovers can buy the wines through Systembolaget. The wines carry with them a sensation of the vineyard's dry and harsh limestone beds sloping down towards the crystal blue Adriatic Sea. Our shareholders now have the chance to savor these premium wines during the long and bright Swedish summer evenings", says Robert Karlsson, CEO of Zhoda Investments.
